LOUISVILLE FORM IS AWRY

RACING AT CHURCHILL DOWNS IS MARKED BY SERIES OF UPSETS.

Kate K., the Only Favorite to Score-Grove Hughes and Leo Skolny Fail to Race as Expected in Day's Feature and Hocnir Wins.

Louisville, Ky., October 16.—Repeated upsets attended today's racing at Churchill Downs, only one first choice managing to score. Some of the beaten favorites failed to land any portion of the purse. The biggest surprise was furnished in the fourth race, the Galt House purse at a mile, in which Leo Skolny and Grover Hughes absorbed nearly all the betting attention. The winner turned up in Mrs. J. Shilling's Hoenir. Leo Skolny, under lard urging, jook second place from Coy Lad. Grover Hughes was soundly beaten after the first three-quarters, He was making his first start in the interest of his new owners. Umensetter & Fink, and made a decidedly poor showing.

Jockey Murphy again scored a triple and his extensive following profited by it handsomely. He inaugurated his success in the opener when he brought W. G. Yanke's Oakland home a slight margin in advance of Morristown. Murphy was guilty of sharp practice when on the stretch turn he left the center of the track and pinned Morristown against the inner rail, keeping him in close quarters until within seventy yards of the finish. As no complaint was made by Smyth, the rider of Morristown the stewards took no action.

The closing dash went to Verena, which made a vastly improved showing and won handily from Mary Ann K. the favorite. A half interest in Verena and Foxy Griff was yesterday acquired by John Hogan, who will do their training in future. Verena was entered for $500 and was bid up to $1,100 by H. Fink, but Hogan protected the horse with an advance of $5.

Another run-up followed the second race when Anna Kruter was bid up $205 over her entered price

$1,100 by H. Fink, but Hogan protected the horse with an advance of $5.

Another run-up followed the second race when Anna Kruter was bid up $205 over her entered price of $500 and retained by her owner. Kate K., faforite for the third race, proved much the best and, showing good speed, led all the way. Goldcrest Gill was considered best in the mile race for two-year-olds, the first at this distance run this fall in Kentucky, but the diminutive Collins was unequal to his task and got her involved in early trouble, from which she suffered so extensively that she falled to place. The winner turned up in Ralnecat, starting here for the first time, which showed a meritorious performance in coming from last place to win hand-trowding soon after the start and it was caused by Don Cortez cutting across from an outer position. The Newman representative came out of the mix-up with a badly severed tendon and it probably with reminate his usefulness as a racer.

Trainer Herman Brandt will depart tomorrow morning for Latonia with sixteen racers owned by Jefferson Livingston, which will take part in the recombinate of the property of the control of the con morning for Latonia with sixteen racers owned by refereson Livingston, which will take part in the racing there.

The Eirod special for Latonia will leave tomorrow evening at eight o'clock and will convey the advance guard of owners, trainers, jockeys and mutuel operators and some of the paraphernalia that will be used at Latonia.

Because of the seven races tomorrow, post time for the first race will be two o'clock sharp.

Trainer Charles Bills will ship Chilton King to Lexington to be retired, as that horse went amiss in his last start and will likely not engage in racing again.

John E. Madden contemplates sending a big band of racers here to winter and has spoken for quarters at Churchill Downs.

Kay Spence and C. W. Gasser will ship their stables to Juarez from here. Hodge, one of the Spence string, will be shipped to Latonia and later on will join the others at the Mexican track.

Jockey E. Denny has been released by E. W. Moore. The latter will send his horses into winter quarters following the close of the Latonia meeting.

Jockeys C. Gross and T. Rice scored for the first time in Kentucky this season when Anna Kruter and Verena won their respective races.

Cool, threatening weather continued to keep the attendance down, but the betting was of surprisingly large volume, its total being the second largest of the present meeting. The track was in worst shape than at any previous time since the opening.

BUILDING UP NEW YORK STAKE VALUES.

Saratoga Association Announces Important In creases in Prize Money for Next Season.

New York, October 16.—With the racing season in New York barely over, the preliminaries for the racing of 1915 are already well under way. The Saratoga Association will shortly announce four of its old two-year-old fixtures that are to be closed for nominations November 16. These stakes are the Grab Eag Handicap, worth $3.500; the United States Hotel Stakes, worth $5.000; the Grand Union Hotel Stakes, of a like value; the Spinaway, for fillies, and worth $3.000, and the Hopeful, with a value of $7.500. During the season just closed the two hotel stakes and the Spinaway carried values of $1.000 added each and the Hopeful was of $5,000 guaranteed.

These early closing stakes reflect increased pros-st.000 added each and the Hopeful was of $5,000 guaranteed.

These early closing stakes reflect increased prosperity for racing and there will be increased values all along the line in the other prizes that will be offered at Saratoga next season.

It is probable that the Westchester Racing Association will be the next to announce early closing stakes, It is proposed that three two-year-olds fixtures and three of the old three-year-old races be closed simultaneously with those of the Saratoga Association on November 16. These are the Juvenile, Keene Memorial and the Fashion for fillies, in the two-year-old list, and the Belmont, Withers and Ladies for the fillies in the three-year-old division. The values of these stakes have not been decided upon, but will be within a few days.

CONSISTENCY IS REQUIRED IN AUSTRALIA.

One of the new and drastic rules of racing in Anstralia was applied with effect at the recent meeting of the Bendigo Jockey Club. A horse called Buckram finished sixth in a hurdle race on the first day, and won under similar conditions on the second day. On his first outing he went back to 8 to 1 in the betting, while his success was foreshadowed on his next appearance by his starting favorite at 3 to 2. The stewards disqualified Buckram for this race, on the ground of inconsistent running, and declared Lady Lenar, which finished second, the winner. The owner appealed to the Victorian Racing Club, but the ruling of the steward was upheld.

TRACK CONDITIONS CHANGE AT LAUREL.

Winner of Handicap Comes from an Unexpected Quarter in Manasseh-Patronage Remains Good.

Baltimore, Md., October 16.—Weather and track conditions at Laurel Park this afternoon were unpropitious, but there was a big crowd in attendance nevertheless. The going was sloppy and rain fell intermittently throughout the racing. Notwithstanding the change in track conditions there were comparatively few scratches, and while the winners for the most part scored easily, the sport was interesting.

paratively few scratches, and while the winners for the most part scored easily, the sport was interesting.

A selling handicap at one mile and a sixteenth, for three-year-olds and upward, was the programmed feature. Of the five carded, one declined. All four starters had their supporters. August Belmont's Thornhill was the popular choice, with Spearhead much fancied. Neither, however, was the winner. Manasseh, reveling in the muddy going and showing improved form, took the lead right after the start and quickly opened up a commanding lead. Thornhill was the one in closest pursuit and he made a game effort. He was unequal to the task, however, and had to be ridden out to heat Spearhead for second money, while Manasseh scored easily.

James Butler, whose two-year-olds have shown suit and he made a game effort. He was unequal to the task, however, and had to be ridden out to beat Spearhead for second money, while Manasseh scored easily.

James Butler, whose two-year-olds have shown remarkable form during the meeting, suffered one of his occasional defeats in the fifth, when Doublet was beaten by Protector a strapping colt by Stalwart—Torrid. Protector was off well and immediately ran into a good lead, which he held all the wa" though at the end he was tiring and had to be shaken up. Doublet had none too good luck. He had to work his way through the field and at the end finished a resolute second.

The horses that Herman B. Duryea and Harry Payne Whitney are shipping back to the United States from Europe are expected to arrive at New York tomorrow. Preparations have been made to stable some of them at the Sheepshead Bay track, and stalls have already been bedded down for their reception.

Jockey Joe Notter returned here from the Whitney farm in New Jersey, while jockey Phil Goldstein went from there to his home in Chicago. Goldstein went from there to his home in Chicago. Goldstein went from there to his home in Chicago. Goldstein will ride for Capt. W. F. Presgrave next season. He will report Jan. 1 at the Silver Brook Farm in New Jersey, where the Presgrave and Clyde horses will be wintered.

W. H. Frey and A. H. Vivell departed tonight with their horses for Latonia. Jockey Dreyer went with the fire yestablishment,

The contract that the Quincy Stable holds on jockey Schuttinger expires with the present meeting. Schuttinger will attach nimself with J. S. Tyree next year. He will probably ride at Charleston and Havana during the winter months.

James Fitzsimmons announced that he would dispose of all the horses that ran in his name during the past season. He has arranged to take up a division of the yearlings that the Quincy Stable hous at Sheepshead Bay. Where they are at present in charge of Ed Phelan. There are nineteen in the lot and some of them are said to be extra good looking yo morrow.

Earl of Savoy was bid up from $400 to $905 by W. R. Mizell and was retained.

ALIEN LABOR ACT AND RACING.

Judge Joseph A. Murphy Gets Interesting Information tion in Connection with Parrington Case.

tion in Connection with Parrington Case.

Washington, D. C., October 16.—At the fall meeting at Woodbine, Edward McBride purchased the three-years' remaining contract on the apprentice rider, Parrington. The boy's home is in Toronto and when Mr. McBride reached Black Rock on his way to Bowie the boy was taken off the cars under the aiien labor act and sent back to his home at Toronto. When Mr. McBride reached Washington he took the matter up with Joseph A. Murphy, presiding judge at various Canadian tracks. Counsel was employed and Judge Murphy took the matter up personally with the department of labor. On information filed by him the boy was ordered admitted.

Judge Murphy then took up with the department the question of exempting from the provisions of the act all people employed in racing. He showed that jockeys and apprentices of skill were few and far between, that there were few starters, judges and stewards of established reputation, that even with horses since they were yearlings, knew their ailments and peculiarities and were practically invaluable to their contract employers. He placed on record a letter outlining these facts and in reply has received the following letter from Hon. F. H. Larned, Acting Commissioner-General of the Bureau of Immigration, which would indicate that Canadians who are interested in racing might easily get a ruling that would settle the matter for all time. The letter is as follows:

"The bureau has received your letter of the 5th instant, has noted its contents and has placed it on file so that its records may contain information regarding the situation with respect to the going back and forth across the Canadian border of men and boys connected with the business of horse racing.

"Of course it is not possible to render a decision concerning this matter unless it comes up for consideration in the regular way, to-wit, by the appearance of a concrete case. This much may be said, however: The laws of Canadia regarding immigration, while similar in most respects to the laws of

ENFORCEMENT A LOCAL FUNCTION

Point Grey, B. C., October 16.—A letter was read at the meeting of Ward One Ratepayers' Association from H. H. Stevens, M. P., in reply to a resolution of the association protesting against the continuation of Minorn Park race meeting beyond the time specified in the Miller act. His reply read in part:

the continuation of Minorn Park race meeting beyond the time specified in the Miller act. His reply read in part:

"The question of administering the law regarding racing comes under the jurisdiction of the Provincial Government. The Miller act as it now stands is successful in restricting racing in all other parts of Canada, and the Minister of Justice claims it is equally applicable to British Columbia as in all other parts of the Dominion."

The letter was ordered to be filed pending the decision of the Vancouver Assize Court in the proceedings.

FAMOUS HORSES IN WAR'S PERILS.

It is said that the German officers displayed a remarkable degree of interest in Durbar and the pedigree and performances of the latest Derby winner were quite well known to many of them. Mr. Duryea's horse was at Marly when the war began, but was removed in a great hurry to Senlis when the former place was threatened by the Teutonic hosts. The negro groom wrapped the Epsom hero in an American flag and covered his horsecioth with a placard which read as follows: "This is Durbar II., the Derby winner. He is neutral." The Germans respected the horse's "neutrality," and he and his stable companion, Shamon, were allowed through and are now in a place of comparative safety.

through and are now in a place of comparative safety.

Previous Derby winners have not been so fortunate in time of war. There was the case of Comte de LaGrange's Consul, for instance, which carried out the Prix du Jockey Club, or Derby Francais, in 1869, beating Ardagne, Pandour, and eleven others. This horse happened to be located at Rouville, near Levignen, when the German avalanche poured itself through the fair domains of France forty-four years ago. He was on a visit to the estate of a big wine-grower there, who wished to add a well-known racchorse to his select stud, and who was debating whether or no to give 3,000 guineas, or its equivalent in francs, for the son of Monarque, A German force entered and sacked this village, and Consul was seized by a Uhlan colonel, who used him, it was said, as a charger in more than one subsequent battle. At the end of the war, however, when Parls capitulated, the colt again fell into French hands, and though he never ran again he site of Kilt, which won the French Derby of 1876 for Baron de Rothschild.

when Paris capitulated, the colt again fell into french hands, and though he never ran again he distinguished himself at the stud, becoming the sire of Kilt, which won the French Derby of 1876 for Baron de Rothschild.

Kettledrum, winner of the Ebsom Derby in 1861, was sent to Austria in early life and stood for some time at the Kisher Stud. He was a conspicuous animal, a chestnut, built on fine, flowing lines, and he rejoteed in an unusually long tail. When, after they had at last beaten gallant little Denmark in the war for "the Duchles," the rogues—Austria and Prussia—fell out, and the first-named empire was swiftly invaded by her crestwhile friends, being very quickly forced to her knees. A raid was anade on the Kisher Stud, and Kettledrum was seized by the Prussian and at once employed on transport work. "That animal won the English Derby" the stud-groom explained to the vetorius Prussian general. "Then he'll do very well," was the placid reply. "to draw a Prussian wagon." To such base usages can celebrities come.

Coronation, Mr. Rawlinson's son of Sir Hercules and Ruby, by Rubens, which won our Derby in 1841, was bought by the Russians. He had been a distinguished racehorse; indeed, he was reckoned favorite at 5 to 2 at Epsom, and won easily by two lengths from Lord Westminster's Van Ambergh, after making nearly all the running. He was only second in the St. Leger, but was thought to have been unlucklly beaten. The fame of the Derby had spread even to Russia seventy or so years ago, and the greatest curlosity was evinced to get a view of so notable a steed as Coronation. To quote from "The Druid," the horse "was mobbed day and night when he arrived at Riga, where he remained on view for some five weeks. His unake and shape were vastly admired, but his attendants had strange notions as to the feeding and exercising of thoroughbred stock, and he was soon a perfect wreek. He, however, recovered a good deal of his former elegance at a farm near the Russian capital, though he was permitted to serve mares of a

In Belgium the Germans are rapidly bringing their forces to the coast. They have occupied Bruges, about fourteen miles east of Ostend, and have appeared at Blankenberghe on the North sea, some twelve miles northeast of Ostend. In the meantime, however, the allies have thrown a strong line out to the southwest with the object of shutting off Caials and other French ports on the English channel. The allies occupy Ypres and their lines is believed to extend almost directly northways and the standard of the control of the control of the control of the land of the control of the land of the control of the land of land o

All the military chieftains of Mexico, including Francisco Villa, Emiliano Zapata and Venustiano Carranza, are now subject to the orders of the Aguas Calientes convention, which after a stormy secret session, voted itself the supreme power of the land. The delegates took oath to abide by the majority vote on all questions, including the form of government and presidential succession. The question of the kind of government that shall prevail will be decided at a session to be held October 20, when a full Zapata delegation, numbering twenty-two, will be present.

Evident preparations on the part of a small detachment of men under General Aguliar for an attack early today on the American outposts around Vera Cruz, have resulted in the strengthening of the American lines. Some 200 Mexicans are in a position about half a nile from the American outposts and they have two mountain guns trained on the American soldiers. Their warlike activity is attributed in Vera Cruz to overindulgence in liquor obtained at a house just beyond the American lines. Aguliar is credited with having from 4,000 to 6,000 men.

The plot to murder Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir to the Austrian throne, was hatched in Belgrade, and a Servian officer, Maj. Tankosio, was chief engineer of the plan. The murder of the Duchess of Hohenberg, wife of Ferdinand, was not a part of the plot. The foregoing facts were brought out by the testimony of two of the men accused of the murder which threw the leading powers of Europe into armed conflict.

Colonel Goethals cabled the war department that traffic through the Panama canal, blocked by a landstip into Culebra cut Tuesday night, would be reopened in about a week.

President Poincaire has signed a decree admitting fresh meat to France free of duty until further notice.

The Italian foreign minister, Marquis Antonio di San Giuliano died yesterday.
